Africa call highlight of meeting

By Ruth Robinson
The Chattanooga Times

A telephone conversation with a missionary in South Africa was the highlight of the Southeast Conference of the United Church of Christ for Dr. David Beebe, pastor of Pilgrim Congregational United Church.

The conference was held last weekend in Chattanooga.

"There was poignancy in hearing John Parsons (the missionary in South Africa) speaking quietly and guardedly, because he could be in trouble with the government if he answered a question incorrectly," Beebe said. "We are keenly aware that Christians (in South Africa) are struggling in many ways to deal with a difficult situation and are very much in need of our prayers."

DEDICATION AT ST. JOHN'S, CULLMAN, AL.

On Sunday, June 29th, the congregation at St. John's United Church in Cullman, AL., dedicated its beautiful new educational building. Costing about $600,000, the three-story building contains new church offices, fellowship space and classrooms. It is a beautifully appointed building which is in keeping with the architecture of the sanctuary which is on the Historical list in Alabama.

The Conference Minister took part in the service along with Pastor George A. Fidler; Associate Pastor Herbert J. Young; Congregational President Larry James; Dot Kelly, Director of Christian Education, and the General Contractor and members of the Building Committee.

Our congratulations to the pastor and people for the successful completion of this ambitious project. May God continue to bless and guide this congregation.

MORE SURGERY FOR REV. ROBERT PEEPLES

Our prayers and best wishes go with Bob and Ruth Peebles as he recuperates from more surgery on his ankle. The surgery to "freeze" the ankle done last fall was not as successful as hoped. Bob decided to undergo further surgery in early July to correct this condition.

We all hope and pray that it "takes" this time, and that he will soon be back at his regular ministry as pastor of the Pleasant Hill Community Church.

We congratulate First Church, and wish for them many more years of fruitful ministry!

After the morning service, the ladies of the church served a delicious dinner in the fellowship hall. Congratulations to the Langdale church and our prayerful best wishes for many more years of Christian fellowship and service.

CONFERENCE CORNER

I can remember teasing Jim Lightbourne, (The Rev. Dr. James H. Lightbourne, Jr.), a good friend of many of us who served as the Southeast Conference Minister from 1957 - 1966. I was then serving as President (Moderator) of the Southern Conference, where Jim was Conference Minister from 1966 until his death in 1981). What I was teasing him about was how relieved he seemed to be when Annual Meeting was over! Now, I understand. So much planning and energy to into an Annual Meeting that those of us involved are relieved when it is all over!

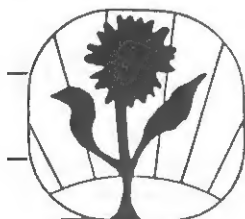

However, along with my relief, I have a deep sense of gratitude. First of all, I am thankful to God for all the blessings bestowed upon us all. I am also grateful to our visiting speakers, especially our preacher, Dr. Reuben A. Sheares, II. I am deeply appreciative of our host pastors and churches who did such a superb job of taking care of us....for our Planning Committee, resourced by Rev. Sandye Mullins, who put together such an inspiring program of worship, music, business and challenge.....for our Moderator, and all the officers and Directors who led us in the meeting, and during past years.....

I cannot begin to name all the persons who should be mentioned. But all of you know who you are, and I hope you also know how much I, and everyone else who was a part of the Annual Meeting, are indebted to you. I believe good things are happening and will continue to happen in the lives of our churches and our people.

Have a good summer, and let's all come back in the fall ready to go to work with renewed vigor for the sake of our Lord and the Work of The Kingdom.

God bless you all!

Emmett O. Floyd

OFFICE FOR CHURCH LIFE AND LEADERSHIP MAKES THE NEWS IN THE ATLANTA-JOURNAL CONSTITUTION

The following article is re-printed from the July 5, 1986 Atlanta-Journal Constitution.

A study packet that focuses on the difficult tasks Jesus gave his followers has been published by the Office for Church Life and Leadership of the 1.7 million-member United Church of Christ.

Called "The Eye of the Needle", the material includes some of the sayings of Jesus. It includes information for church groups that want to explore how such statements apply to their own lives.

The Rev. Joyce Myers of Atlanta, Southern Regional Associate for the UCC's Office for Church Life and Leadership, said, "so often we tend to deal with the easy aspects of our faith. We need to realize that there are hard teachings of Jesus that may challenge our lifestyles or the values of our society."

Much of the discussion in the book deals with social questions and the United Church of Christ, well-known for its social justice stands, has put special effort into probing the biblical foundations for those positions.

For example, the name of the packet and the first chapter in the booklet of worship programs comes from Jesus' statement that "it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God. (Matt. 19:24).

The program takes participants through meditations on Jesus' words, and the different lives of rich and poor and the call for Christians to share.

While the packet is published for clergy and laity of the United Church of Christ, it is also available to others. For more information call the UCC's Church Leadership Resources at 1-800-325-7061.
